Classroom Activities

Thank you to everyone that turned in homework today. If you have not finished reading the books 3 times, please finish over the weekend and send back homework on Tuesday. Next we will begin our unit about numbers. This unit will begin with the numbers 0-10 and how to write the numbers the "kindergarten way". We will also be doing lots of counting and a special skill called subtizing. In social studies we finished our unit about families. We drew our families and they are hanging in the hallway. We will be focusing more on science in the weeks to come with a unit about force and motion. During our RAMS meeting, we will focus on how to make and be a good friend.

Books We Read

What About Bear? By Suzanne Bloom

"The Lion and the Mouse"

How Much Lunch? By Elayne Reiss-Weimann

"The Lion and the Mouse" based on Aesop's fable

Letter Person News

In your child's folder tonight you will see a giant M that had been divided into spots. Your child wrote and drew an illustration of each of the words in those boxes. You will notice that the words are not spelled correctly. This is because in kindergarten we work on writing letter sounds. Right now we may not be writing all of the sounds we hear but we are trying to write at least a beginning, middle, and ending sound for each word. Watch for class books in your child's backpack next week.
